This is, after all, a very urgent matter since the crisis we confront--

--is not a crisis in the schools,
--it is, in fact, a crisis with our students.

--Students whose lives will be forever diminished or enriched by the programs we provide.

On one occasion, James Agee wrote that:

"In every child who is born,

- ° under no matter what circumstances,
- ° and of no matter what parents,
- ° the potentiality of the human race
is born again.

And in him, too--once more is born--our "terrific"
responsibility

- ° towards human life
- ° and towards the utmost idea--
--of goodness,
--of the horror of error
--and of God."

Thank you very much for inviting me here today.
